W.M. Grove

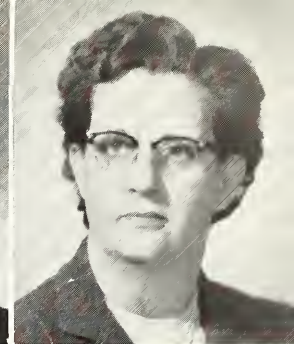

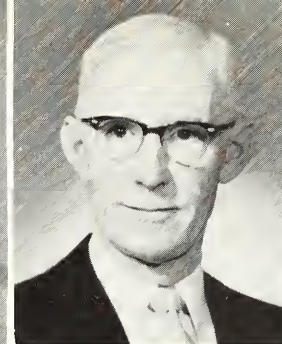

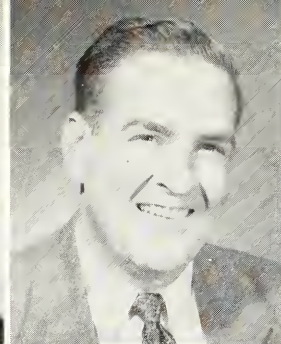

1956
El Dorado Junior College
El Dorado, Kansas

DEDICATION

Mascot Gruffy T. says: "Representating the student body, I take great pleasure in dedicating this 1956 'Grizzly Growl' to our new dean, Tim Aley, and to our former dean and present superintendent of schools, Max Bickford. Mr. Bickford assumed his present position this year, after having been dean for eight years, and Mr. Aley came from Hutchinson Junior College to fill the vacancy.

"I share the feeling of Jucoites that we are fortunate in having two such friendly, competent men in these key positions."

John Ivy
Assistant Coach

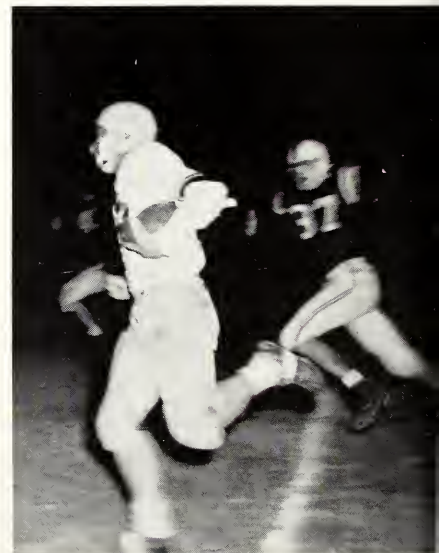

Playing in the roughest league in Kansas conference history, the Juco Grizzlies played a successful season, winning six games and losing three. They finished in a tie with Ark City for fourth place in the conference.

The Juco squad was ably coached again this year by Bob Douglass and his new assistant, John Ivy. Although they suffered more than their share of injuries and tough luck, the El Dorado team of 1955 will long be remembered for the fight and desire to win so plainly shown in every game they played.

FOOTBALL SNAPS

The El Dorado Grizzlies began the season with two very impressive victories over Fairbury, Nebraska, and Parsons. With two wins under their belt, they traveled to Dodge City, where they were defeated 7-14. This was a rough one to lose, in that Dodge scored one touchdown with just a few seconds left in the first half. The Grizzlies played a very fine game the next week in beating a good Coffeyville club, but got bumped again by one touchdown at the hands of Ark City. They had a week's lay-off and then came back strong to drop Independence 26-13. Garden City rolled into town the next week and were just too much to handle. The Grizzlies finished off the season in fine shape, though, by dropping Hutchinson and beating Pratt at the homecoming game.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

FARALENE WENTLING

At the dance following the Pratt game, homecoming Queen Faralene was crowned by game captain, Larry Davis. Her two attendants, Eleanor Ledbetter and Sue Wilson, were escorted by Bill Orth and Danny O'Brien.

ELEANOR LEDBETTER

SUE WILSON

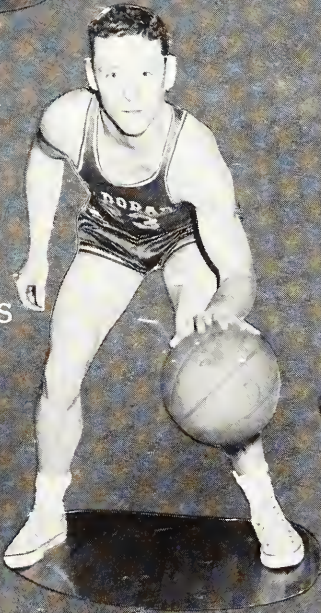

El Dorado Junior College Grizzlies took off for the second straight year under the guidance of a new coach, Don Hight from Neodesha. The team had moderate success to date with a total of nine wins and eleven losses.

Following a mid-season slump, the boys were victorious with three straight wins. The first was a victory over Dodge City by a score of 97 to 60, the second was a triumph over Parsons, and a win over Chanute by the score of 83 to 75 was the third. As this page goes to press, hopes are high for a victorious ending of the 1955-56 season. Not pictured is Ray Houser who joined the team second semester.

The new Engineering Club, under the sponsorship of S. H. Coffman, is comprised of Junior College students interested in engineering and science. Its purposes are to provide knowledge in the various fields of engineering and to create and interest in the new developments of modern science.

"THE GREEN VINE"

The annual college play "The Green Vine" was presented on November 22 by the Juco cast. The play centered around George Brand, a ghost seen only by the audience. Many amusing incidents resulted from his efforts to straighten out his family's affairs. Mr. L. W. Nixon was the capable director.
